

Starting the enquiry

- Stand on a bridging line from one extreme answer to the question to the other - why are you standing where you are and why - talk about with people nearby.
- Person / group who came up with the question start talking about it.
- Partner talk first.
- Private reflection first.
- Write / draw how you feel about the question.

Activity during the enquiry

- Partner talk
- Private reflection (targeted through a specific question)
- A question to develop ch's thinking about the question in to 'real life' / back to their own experiences e.g. 5 things you have done which are valuable.
- Thought experiment - What if...

Closing the enquiry & final thoughts

- Private reflection
- Partner talk
- Write / draw how you feel about the question
- Blob people
- Bridging line (for first time or revisit)
- How has your thinking changed?
- If you had to give an answer in 1 sentence, what would you say?